Cambrai Primary School attends Mannum Christmas Tree Festival

On November 30, Cambrai Primary School attended the Mannum Christmas Tree Festival. School students sang the National Anthem and a rendition of "The 12 Days of Christmas", with each class adding their own unique 12 items.

The children were then able to purchase goodies from the amazing array of stalls. Children enjoyed lunch by the river followed by a tour of the Mannum Dock.

Cambrai Primary goes to Errappa Blue Light Camp

From November 19 until November 22, Cambrai Primary School students were treated to thrills and spills at the Errappa Blue Light Camp.

Errappa camp is located at Iron Knob and run by the South Australian Police. The children embarked early on Monday morning for the long drive to Iron Knob, stopping for lunch and a quick play at Port Augusta.

During the camp the children participated in high ropes, flying fox, the leap of faith, orienteering as well as many more indoor activities.

The children had fun looking around the Iron Knob information Centre.

On Thursday the children returned home to Cambrai.

Cambrai Primary School Principal, Ms Michele Holloway said, "Parents should be so proud of their children for taking on challenges way beyond their comfort zone".

She was also very proud of how the children were so supportive and encouraging of each other.

Notice has been given that 2 dogs went missing on Sunday morning, December 2, from 82 Fromm Road (Norm's Coolies), a 4 year old female and a little female of 4 months. Happy is the name of the 4 year old, always was very happy and loved by her master, when the master lay down for a rest in the afternoon Happy always lay her head on the master's chest and slept with her master, what devotion. Little Blondy was her master's kitchen companion always with him, never took her eyes off the master, that's devotion at its best. The writer states that the master travelled the roads hour after hour without a sign of his beloved companions, as these young dogs had never been on the road before (never). The writer states this has become a mystery. Happy just finished rearing her litter of puppies next to the kitchen, what a possessive mother, even the pups will miss their mother, a mother never leaves her family without cause, not this mother for sure.

A sadness not easy to live with at the age of the owner, the writer asks that anyone knowing where these 2 dogs are, please return them to the lonely, 95 year old man, how does he enjoy Christmas?

Norm Keast, Tanunda.

TOWN OF GAWLER

Library and Customer Service Officers – Casual Relief (multiple positions) Level 2, $37.90 per hour, inclusive of casual loading

Established in 1839, the Town of Gawler is one of South Australia's most significant historic towns and fastest growing peri-urban region.

We are currently seeking Casual Relief Officers for the Library and Customer Service Team at the Town of Gawler. The Library and Customer Service Team are responsible for providing consistent and high quality Library and Customer Services across a number of sites within the community.

The successful candidates will possess demonstrated Library and/or Customer Service experience, strong interpersonal communication skills, high attention to detail, the ability to prioritise and work under pressure, and the ability to work co-operatively and effectively as part of a team. Demonstrated computer skills are also required. In this Casual Relief role, you will provide casual relief to the Library and Customer Service Team as required.

You will perform a variety of Library and Customer Service front desk tasks, including assisting with enquiries, issuing and returning library materials, accurately shelving and maintaining library materials, cash handling and the receipting of a wide range of accounts, permits, applications and registrations, including dog registrations.

Through a Memorandum of Understanding, casual Library shifts at the Adelaide Plains Council Library will also be offered to successful candidates. Weekend and evening work as rostered to support Library opening hours will be required.

To be successful in this position, you must have a current Driver's Licence, as you will be required to work across a number of sites. You must also be willing to undertake a relevant Department for Communities and Social Inclusion (DCSI) Employment Screening.

If you would like to know more, contact Chiah Mayne, Team Leader Library and Customer Services on 8522 0126. Applications must address the Essential Criteria of the Position Description that can be downloaded from the website www.gawler.sa.gov.au

All applications must be addressed to the CEO, Henry Inat, and be submitted via email only to: employment@gawler.sa.gov.au

Council is an equal opportunity employer with a smoke, drug and alcohol free work environment. Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander People are encouraged to apply. General enquires can be made to the Team Leader Organisational Development Sue Tobin on 8522 9291.

Applications close 5pm Friday 18 January 2019.
