Commis Cook

The Opportunity:

We have an exciting opportunity for a Commis Cook to join our St Hugo Brand Home in the Barossa Valley.

Your new place of work:

St Hugo is located at Rowland Flat in the heart of Australia's premier wine region, the Barossa Valley. Just over an hour's drive from Adelaide, this historic destination is home to more than 150 wineries and cellar doors, a thriving local food scene, picturesque landscapes and luxury accommodation

In a nutshell you will:

- Be in a hands-on role ensuring that all meals are prepared, presented and delivered to the highest quality
- Be passionate about creating an exceptional experience for consumers
- Ability to work under pressure while having an eye for detail
- Be customer facing in our open kitchen and have previous experience in a similar establishment

What you will bring to the team:

- A well-developed palate and good understanding of food flavours and textures
- Imagination & willingness to explore new cooking avenues
- Wine knowledge will be highly regarded but not essential
- Team player and ability to work flexibly across 7 day roster for functions and events

What you will love about the job:

- A friendly, diverse and supportive team environment
- A team that supports work and family commitments that is underpinned by values and policies that promote diversity and inclusiveness
- Being a part of a team that is committed, engaged and performing at their best
- Career development opportunities and a competitive remuneration
- Plus way more!

Start your career as our next Commis Cook by submitting your CV & Cover letter! If you like the sound of this opportunity, search for this job on seek <https://www.seek.com.au/> and submit your CV & Cover letter!

Applications will remain open until a suitable candidate is found.

PAYROLL OFFICER - CONTRACT

The role of Payroll Officer sits within HR and is responsible for the timely and accurate processing of approximately 800 fortnightly pays for both casual and permanent employees.

Reporting to the Payroll Manager, the successful candidate will have demonstrated experience in administering large volume end to end payroll, be confident in award interpretation across various state awards and interpreting multiple enterprise bargaining agreements.

Other duties include checking and keying of time sheet data, petty cash and employee expense reimbursement, and general clerical support duties such as filing, compiling letters and reporting.

We are seeking a proactive, enthusiastic and detail orientated payroll professional with the ability to quickly and accurately pick up the end to end payroll function. Ideally, you will possess a minimum of three years payroll experience, in particular volume payroll functions and confidence in accurately interpreting various state based and industry awards, preferably with experience within the Wine, Manufacturing, and/or Hospitality & Restaurant industries.

This role is offered as a fixed term six-month contract commencing as soon as possible.

Confidential applications can be made via email to Hannah Dawkins, HR Specialist, at hdawkins@yalumba.com by Wednesday 27 February. Informal enquiries to Hannah are welcome on 8561 3341.

The Opportunity

We have an exciting opportunity for a Farm Manager, Turretfield to be part of our South Australian Research and Development Institute (SARDI) Division within PIRSA. The role reports to Hazel Cochrane, General Manager Business Support.

The Farm Manager is part of the Business Services branch within the SARDI Division. The Farm Manager is responsible for providing effective management of the Turretfield Research Centre farm by supervising all aspects of farm operations including staff supervision; agricultural and livestock production; maintenance of plant and equipment; and organising on-farm promotions in order to support the delivery of advanced research outcomes.

About Us

Primary Industries and Regions SA, as a key economic development agency of the South Australian Government, works across a diverse range of industry sectors including agriculture, livestock, forestry, fishing and aquaculture and regional development. We involve and engage with others to ensure we make good decisions, have clear policies, plan and implement effective programs, drive relevant projects, promote efficient resource use and broker shared responsibility. In this way we enable the State's primary industry sectors and regions to remain competitive, productive and sustainable.

South Australian Research and Development Institute (SARDI) provides research and development services to the state government, commercial clients and research partners to help make South Australia's primary industries and regions internationally competitive and ecologically sustainable. SARDI's programs are designed to increase the productivity, sustainability and adaptability of the state's agriculture, food and wine, fisheries and aquaculture and bioscience enterprises, create opportunities for market growth, address barriers to growth and provide applied solutions.

Benefits

At PIRSA, we offer our employees challenging and rewarding work with opportunities for career progression, learning and development and flexibility.

Our Commitment to Diversity

PIRSA is committed to building a flexible, diverse and inclusive culture, planning for and promoting diversity. We welcome and encourage applications from diverse community groups and ages including Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander, LGBTIQ, people with disabilities, women and other diversity groups. PIRSA recognises the benefits that such an approach brings for our staff and customers in delivering the future of SA.

Special Conditions

This is ongoing position. Possession of a current driver's licence and a willingness to drive is required. Out of hours work will be required.

Enquiries
