Thunderbird and pro rider secured for Mannum Fun Run

Adelaide Thunderbird, Charlee Hodges will be amongst the participants at the Mannum Fun Run and Walk.

Adelaide Thunderbird, Charlee Hodges and Mannum's own professional motocross rider, Brett Metcalfe will join the hundreds of participants at the 2018 Mannum Fun Run and Walk on November 4.

In an incredible coup for the community event, the two high profile sportspeople have been secured as the ambassadors – and will be available for signings, photos and to participate themselves!

Mannum's picturesque Mary Ann Reserve will become a hive of all kinds of activities for the annual wellbeing event, which is set to attract hundreds of participants and spectators for its 10, five and three-kilometre categories.

Mid Murray Council Community Services Director, Ms Amy Loechel says the free event has something to suit every fitness level, from children and walkers to distance runners looking for a challenge. It even includes a short riverfront run for children under 10.

"It's about getting the whole family out and enjoying a fun and active morning together," Ms Loechel says.

"We wanted to create an event which had a category for everyone. This includes people who choose to walk, run, or even ride their gophers!"

"The popular Under 10 Kids' Dash will also make a return this year for our youngest competitors to join in the fun.

"The dash is run along Mary Ann Reserve after the major event – ensuring that the whole family can get their fitness fix for the day."
