Role of RDA Board members

Members

Position Descriptions

Members of the RDA Committee will be active contributors to the outcomes of a diverse organisation of individuals working in a complex environment to deliver high value outcomes for the community and the region. They will be active in their regional communities and contribute to supporting local jobs and regional growth. Regional Development Australia – Better Practice Guide 18

They will be expected to leverage existing networks and develop new networks across industry sectors. RDA Committee members will be required to support the Chair to attract opportunities and investment to their region. They must be knowledgeable about the economic, social, cultural and environmental opportunities and challenges facing their region; be well connected and a strong advocate for their regional communities; and draw their communities together to build and drive economic growth.

The RDA member will work as an effective member of the RDA Committee toward a common goal or strategy and drive projects that target specific areas of economic development for the region. They will actively support RDA Committee governance and management processes.

Accountabilities and Responsibilities

RDA Committee Members will be accountable to:

- the Chair for supporting the activities of the Committee;
- their communities for delivering outcomes that meet regional needs;
- the funding providers for ensuring that agreed objectives are achieved and resources invested are expended as efficiently and effectively as possible; and
- RDA Committee staff for providing a safe and healthy workplace.

The RDA Deputy Chair and Committee Members will be responsible for supporting the RDA Committee to meet the requirements of the RDA Charter, deliver against the Outcomes, reporting requirements and Performance Measures specified in the RDA Funding Agreement, and for the good operational and financial governance of the overall organisation.
