

Australia China Business Council
澳大利亚中国工商业委员会

GOING GLOBAL: China Business Opportunities

- Why we should be doing business in China
- Size of the Market
- Shandong has never been so close
- Roadblocks and Opportunities
- B2B – Australia China Business Platform

These and many other topics will be discussed during the workshop with the State Government's Strategic Advisor on China and SA President of Australia China Business Council Sean Keenihan

4th of March 2016, 10 am – 12.30 pm
Jacob`s Creek Visitor Centre

Keynote Presentation followed by Panel Discussion with Business and Government
Event is FREE, morning tea and light lunch included

*Special bonus for the Participants – Late Registration to Shandong Mission at the Event

This workshop is for you if:

- you are thinking about exporting to China
- you are interested in Chinese partners or investors
- you are considering Chinese tourism opportunities

Keynote Speaker: Sean Keenihan, Chairman of Partners Norman Waterhouse

Sean is a recognised opinion leader around Australia's engagement with China with a particular focus on South Australia's economic transformation through improved trade and investment dealings with China.

Sean's roles include:

- Chairman, Norman Waterhouse Lawyers
- Chairman, South Australian Tourism Commission
- National Vice President of the Australia China Business Council Ltd and SA President of the Australia China Business Council
- SA Government Strategic Advisor – China
- Economic Development Board's Industry Growth Sub-Committee Member
- Member of the Advisory Committee of the Confucius Institute (Uni Adelaide)
- Board Member, Salisbury Water Management Board

"Barossa, Light, Gawler & Mollala working together"

Register HERE or at www.barossa.org.au

Jacob`s Creek Visitor Centre, Steingarten Room,
2129 Barossa Valley Way, Rowland Flat 5352