DEATHS

LUCAS,

Robin Kenneth:

Friday was your birthday, 69 you would have been, you couldn't stay, not even for 10 minutes to have your special day.

We were there for hours but felt like minutes watching and waiting until you took your final breath.

Peace and quiet was what you wanted but we were all too loud.

Remembering you and your funny ways, it was nice to reminisce.

A party in heaven with your parents and your brother was what you really wanted, we hope it was special and know you would have enjoyed it.

A cake was had for you, a birthday song was sung, a tear here and there was shed as we sang you a birthday song.

Nearly 69 years of suffering, many memories were made.

Starcey was what I hear you call as you couldn't say my name, a treasured memory, although not at the time.

What I wouldn't give to have you call me that just one more time.

A special name you had made.

Now you can live as a normal soul again.

Once you finish healing I do hope you play a little game, not to scare us but so we feel your presence.

You are no longer in pain.

You were our uncle, the kids' great-uncle Roggy, oh how they miss you and running riot in the home.

So many smiles and laughs were had as you and the residents watched them grow.

As you drifted off to sleep the most fitting song, a message from the angels for mum, the Bee Gees 'I've gotta get a message to you.'

DEATHS

Notice Continued

LUCAS,

Robin Kenneth:

The lyrics that stood out the most, although the whole song was just perfect 'I told him I'm in no hurry, but if I broke her heart, then won't you tell her I'm sorry and for once in my life I'm alone, and I got to let her know just in time before I go, I've just to get a message to you, hold on, hold on'.

As mum says her final goodbye, to her last family member, her last living sibling, her heart broke into a million pieces but knowing you will be reunited with everyone.

She was still there right by your side as she always was caring for you.

You are already so missed uncle Rob. Until we meet again.

Love from Stacey (Starcey) and family.

SAVIN,

Mark Andrew:

Suddenly passed away on Saturday, May 9, 2020.

Dearly loved by your wife, Heather and three children, Kyle and daughter-in-law Renee, Larissa, Stacey and partner, Sam.

We all love and miss you every day and wish you were still here with us.

Love you always.

SCHROETER,

Kevin:

2/1/30 - 14/5/19.
