Unlucky 13! 2020 Funday Sunday cancelled

Funday Sunday, a free family, fun, food and entertainment event, held annually at the Tanunda Oval on the second Sunday in September, has been cancelled this year reports organiser, Mr Andy Thurlow.

Held annually for 12 years and organised by Christian Churches in the Barossa and supported by church members and local businesses, Funday Sunday is now well and truly an established event on the local calendar.

Beginning with a Family Celebration Service arranged and run by Barossa's youth, crowds have grown so that now over 2,000 people enjoy the day.

Whilst the organising committee could clearly see a great need for people to enjoy such an event, especially after the isolation imposed by the Covid pandemic, the organisational obstacles proved insurmountable.

Mr Thurlow concluded saying, "The hope is that things will be closer to normal next year and Funday Sunday can return bigger and brighter than ever. We hope to see you there in 2021!"
