Casual Cellar Door Wine Ambassador

Peter Lehmann Wines

Peter Lehmann Wines is seeking casual Cellar Door Wine Ambassadors who are genuinely excited about wine and hospitality and have strong wine and food knowledge coupled with exceptional customer service skills.

Reporting directly to the Cellar Door Manager, this is a hands-on role that will suit motivated, proactive and driven individuals who are team players. Our focus is on exceeding customer expectation so operational experience at a premium level is required to support the successful running of this busy Cellar Door.

This is a great opportunity to work at one of the Barossa Valley's iconic venues, where exceptional wine, seasonal produce and events create a wonderful environment in which to thrive.

We are looking for confident and highly polished, fun and enthusiastic individuals with sound wine knowledge and customer service experience.

The ideal candidates will be proactive, organised and able to work both autonomously or in a group environment. The roles are casual positions and applicants must be available to work weekends.

To be successful in this role, you will have:

- Previous Cellar Door sales experience
- High level of customer service
- Hospitality and events experience would be advantageous
- Excellent presentation and communications skills
- Extensive wine knowledge
- RSA compliant

people of our heart

Community Development Officer Full time/Part time Position

People are at the heart of everything we do at Barossa Village. A not for profit, community owned organisation, Barossa Village has provided aged care services to the Barossa region since 1964, including retirement living, in-home care, supported accommodation and residential care.

Working together with our residents, clients, employees, volunteers, contractors, family members and friends, we all contribute in a unique way to an organisation of which we are very proud.

With continued growth across all areas of our business, we are seeking to recruit a Community Development Officer who will be responsible for the delivery and support of a variety of community development and volunteering initiatives, programs and projects to address current and emerging issues in the area of community connections and support for the elderly in the Barossa region.

Working with the current leadership group, the role will involve the development and delivery of wellbeing promotion activities and events, managing and growing meaningful volunteering opportunities, strengthen communications and the promotion of organisational services to the broader community.

Much of the role will be based at the newly developed Information Centre within the Arthur & Gladys Reusch Building, in the main street of Nuriootpa supporting the Community Op Shop and undertaking promotional activities.

Working at Barossa Village comes with many benefits, including flexible work hours and Salary Packaging options.

To be considered for this position you will have:

- Tertiary qualification in a relevant discipline (such as Community Development, Social Science and/or Volunteering) or similar/relevant qualifications
- Experience working within aged care or not for profit sector
- Demonstrated knowledge of working within a Community Development Framework.
- Sound knowledge of and capacity to implement effective community engagement techniques
- A high level of interpersonal skills, including demonstrated ability working with a broad range of clients, staff and stakeholders
- Attitudes and behaviours that promote a respectful and balanced partnership within the team and with our clients and contracted care workers
- A National Police Clearance & Flu vax is essential

If you have a passion for working with people and possess the drive and enthusiasm to make a real difference, we would love to hear from you.

Please direct all enquiries to Carol Chipman, on 8562 0300 or submit your cover letter and resume to carolch@barossvillage.org

Applications close Monday, September 14, 2020.

SULLIVAN

EXECUTIVE OFFICER (PART TIME)

Company Overview

The Angaston Medical Centre is a modern medical practice which provides exceptional 'whole person care' to the community. Consulting across two sites within Angaston, the Angaston Medical Centre is an accredited practice of experienced, thorough and caring GPs, nurses and staff which offers a wide range of services.

Role Overview

Reporting directly to the Board of Directors, the Executive Officer is primarily responsible for leading the direction of the Angaston Medical Centre to ensure high quality service delivery, in line with the strategic plan. This critical position is also responsible for championing the Medical Centre's culture and consistently promoting a collaborative approach in order to achieve optimum health outcomes for the local community. Furthermore, the Executive Officer will ensure that the Practice's policies and procedures are current in order to continually achieve compliance with relevant regulations and standards.

Other key responsibilities of this role include:

- Developing and maintaining strong stakeholder relationships;
- Working in partnership with the Board of Directors to achieve the Practice's Vision;

- Leading the strategic planning development activities;
- Creating a pathway for the future development of the business;
- Maintaining and enhancing the reputation of the Angaston Medical Centre;
- Developing and reporting on Key Performance Indicators.

Skills, Knowledge and Experience

The successful candidate will be a proven leader who is able to provide clear direction within a complex environment and is committed to the principles of quality health care service provision. Possessing demonstrated experience within management positions, you will possess high level analytical and strategic skills, which allow you to implement and drive strategic initiatives throughout the business. The Executive Officer will be a natural networker, who displays a demonstrated ability to work in partnership with the Board of Directors, as well as highly developed interpersonal communication skills in order to engage effectively with a broad range of stakeholders.

It is desirable, however not essential that the successful candidate will be tertiary qualified in business, commerce or a related field and will have an in-depth understanding of the health industry, including clinical compliance and regulatory requirements.

To submit your application, in strict confidence, please apply online at sullivanconsulting.com.au/current-positions. Alternatively, for a confidential discussion, please contact Andrew Sullivan or Tomas Spanovskis on 0408 233 733. Applications close on Friday the 18th of September 2020.
