Customer Experience Manager

- Unique opportunity to make your mark
- Join a dedicated and professional team
- Develop and manage an extraordinary product

About the Role

Barossa Grape & Wine Association (BGWA) has a brand new position that is an exciting combination of high-level strategy, hands-on leadership and roll-your-sleeves-up delivery. This is a key role and wonderful opportunity to join a close and professional team in new offices at the state-of-the-art regional grape and wine community hub, The Barossa Cellar.

The Customer Experience Manager will work with the CEO to develop the new Customer Strategy and ensure the seamless integration of BGWA's customer service function across all channels. You will ensure customer experiences are consistent with BGWA standards, aspirations and strategic intentions, while establishing systematic processes to manage customer experiences that build advocacy and loyalty.

At the heart of the role's responsibilities will be the development and delivery of a range of customer experiences and events that complement BGWA strategy. This will include crafting a portfolio of unique products, including culinary, education and tasting experiences, to showcase the best of Barossa wine and hospitality, and promote the Barossa brand.

You will provide overall management for these events, including planning, administration, logistics and event delivery.

It's a dynamic and varied role, offering plenty of diversity and an opportunity for you to make your mark.

About You

You will be someone who loves designing and delivering memorable customer experiences. You'll probably have a background in Hospitality or event management, and possibly be degree-qualified in a Marketing or Business-related field. Most importantly, you'll have a track record of success in managing the customer experience.

You will be familiar with using data to extract meaningful and useful business insights to continuously improve the customer experience, and bring a proven ability to manage budgets and reporting requirements.

You have a keen eye for detail, enjoy the discipline of methodical planning and relish the delivery of complex events. You'll be a natural collaborator, who enjoys building and maintaining relationships with a range of stakeholders.

The BGWA office is home to an energetic and professional team, working to deliver the best-possible outcomes for their members and the Barossa community – and you will be eager to be a part of it.

About BGWA

The BGWA was established in 2008 as the peak wine industry body in Barossa.

BGWA is uniquely positioned to nurture and promote brand Barossa to a global audience, to facilitate within Barossa the uptake of vineyard, winery and business best practice and to comment and lobby on government and industry policy issues.

Today the BGWA stands as a beacon within the Barossa wine community, where the investments and capabilities of the region's grape growers and winemakers are harnessed to enable collective action for the greater good.

This is a great role, offering challenge, variety, and autonomy. If you are interested, we'd love to hear from you and why you think you'd make a perfect fit. Please email your cover letter and CV, to Nick Slape - nick@altopeople.com.au or call Nick on 0411 267 720 for a confidential conversation. A Position Description is available on request.
