Climate crisis discussion

A free information session on the current state of the global climate crisis as it will affect the Barossa community will be held in Mount Pleasant on August 14 between 12 p.m. and 2 p.m.

It will be held at "The Shed" on Phillis Street behind the Mount Pleasant Resource Centre in Mount Pleasant.

The session will be presented by a group of concerned Barossa citizens who have formed a local group of Extinction Rebellion South Australia.

The session will focus on scientific information supporting the urgent need for action to mitigate the effects of climate change in our region.

Extinction Rebellion is a decentralised international movement using non-violent direct action to persuade governments to act justly on the climate emergency.

This meeting is a great opportunity to connect with local people who are concerned about our changing climate and to learn how best to bring about positive change in the Barossa.

Attendance numbers are limited due to COVID cautions so please RSVP to Lyn-K on 8389 5458 to book your seat.
