<https://www.taylorandforgie.com.au/about-us/>

We are one of the larger funeral companies in Adelaide and also manage a further 2000 cremations in our own crematorium. The services are conducted primarily in our four chapels that incorporate innovative features that will see us as the innovative service provider into the future.

The role includes an on call after hours roster and an increased salary based on experience. Previous funeral directing and arranging experience is not essential, but highly valued.

A position is immediately available.

Role Description

The position requires you to have:

- Proven sensibility to distressed people, their values and beliefs.
- Experience in a Service Customer driven position with multi tasking.
- Proven ability to implement time structures and follow through skills.
- Interpersonal skills to assist in a team environment.
- The position can be physically demanding and a Drivers licence is required
- An on call 24/7 roster system applies. (1 in 5)

Funeral Director Duties

To arrange and conduct funerals.

- To have a sound knowledge of Churches, Ministers and cemeteries.
- To interview next of kin to ascertain their requirements as to the Funeral arrangements of the deceased person.
- To carry out their instructions and ensure all their needs are met before, at and after the funeral.
- To have expertise in the function and setting up of graveside equipment and placement of vehicles for smooth flow.
- Operation of Cremator if required.
- Transfer of deceased people from the place of death, eg, home, hospital, accident scene.
- To carry out approximately 12 weeks after hours on call per annum.
- To attend to the deceased person for basic mortuary care.

General Duties

To carry out maintenance tasks as required.

- General Clerical duties and moderate computer skills required.

Remuneration

Based on Funeral Directors Award 2020. However a salary will be paid to acknowledge the experience and skills the applicant brings to the position.

To Apply:

Send a hand written cover letter with your resume (With at least 2 references and to answer this question in your cover letter: "What makes a good funeral?")

Emailed to info@taylorandforgie.com.au

Attention Claire Forgie/Margaret Stone

or posted to PO Box 711 GAWLER SA 5118.

Applications close Friday September 17, 2021
